All activities require participation in Farm Science Review as an exhibitor

If your company is interested in exhibiting at the Farm Science Review, please contact Nick Zachrich at 614-292-4278 or zachrich.13@osu.edu.

While the majority of FSR attendees are, in fact, producers, our attendees represent various sectors and occupations in the agriculture industry, including: Dealers, Retailers, Commercial Applicators, Educators, Students, Media, Elected and Public Officials, Trade Associations, Rural Landowners, etc.

Farm Science Review visitors will again be able to browse the interactive map and search for specific exhibitors or product categories on the mobile app and online directory. Upgrade your listing for better visibility to your potential customers. The 2021 Farm Science Review mobile app and online directory will be available to the public starting July 1st!

Available on Google Play Store and Apple App Store
